Cyndy Carstens

Born in Minnesota and after 22 years on the Kansas plains, Cyndy Carstens currently lives and works in the Phoenix, AZ area. She won her first art competition at 6 years old – a summer scholarship to the Minnesota Art Institute. An intense desire for pursuing a life in the arts ensued. She developed entrepreneurial careers as a graphic designer, art director and muralist.

Fine art, however, is her driving passion. Working in a range of mediums including oil, acrylic, watercolor and mixed media, her work has won a number of awards and competitions including The Chairman's Award at the Peoria Arts Council Annual Juried Exhibition, The Wichita River Festival Poster, several Arizona Artist Guild Excellence in Painting Awards, has been honored Artist of Distinction Award from Stillpoint Gallery of Brunswick, Maine, and most recently Best of Show at the 2011 Arizona Artist Guild Spring Exhibition juried by Professor Robert G. You.
